

10270 Water Ditch Covering

10270: Cover for water jump and pit constructed from extremely robust aluminium profiles. With a tongue and groove joint. The individual profiles up to the ramp is so constructed that they can be integrated perfectly flush to the track.

10310: Under structure for water ditch covers. With its special adjustable height and length, it can also be used for water jumps from other manufacturers. Made from special aluminium profile. All screws made from stainless steel. One set consist of three pieces.

